St George's Centre, 60 Great George Street, Leeds LS1 3BR

Tuesday 11 May 2010

University of Leicester, Charles Wilson Building, University Road, Leicester LE1 7RH

Event Background

NIACE and Digital Unite are pleased to announce that they will be working together to deliver a digital inclusion project for residents of sheltered housing, to enable older people living in sheltered housing to benefit from communal facilities to access the internet and online services through access to funding and a bespoke digital literacy training programme.

The programme will be launched in a series of regional events across England in 2010, which will support applications from sheltered housing schemes to participate in the programme.

The event aims to:

- Inform stakeholders of the Get Digital programme
- Inform stakeholders how they can benefit from the programme
- Provide guidance on how to apply to participate in the programme
- Provide an opportunity to network and learn from other relevant regional schemes and programmes
- Discuss the future development of the programme
- Provide information on materials which will be developed by the programme.

Project Background

The project will run from February 2010 until March 2011. By then, the project will have engaged with up to 500 sheltered schemes either through a local delivery scheme, or through the benefits of online resources and support.

The programme will offer Registered Social Landlords (RSLs) grants to help set up appropriate facilities and provide the support needed to ensure residents can make full use of them. The programme will also develop a wide range of support materials for Registered Social Landlords to enable them to set up and sustain facilities for residents. This will include advice and guidance on appropriate equipment and connectivity, free training and resources for residents and extensive advice and guidance on working with local organisations to sustain digital literacy activities.

Residents, staff and volunteers will be encouraged to work with other local organisations to develop ways of building on digital skills and access provided by the programme.
