

Linking Theory and Policy

Tom Schuller, Director IFLL

NIACE/FLLAG conference

Sheffield, January 2009

Outline of Inquiry Papers

IFLL Final Report
IFLL Strategic Framework for Lifelong Learning
Interim Papers
Thematic (10)	Expenditure (4)	Sectoral (7)	Social Productivity
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> § Prosperity Employment & Work § Demography and Social Structure § Wellbeing and Happiness § Migration and Communities § Technological Change § Poverty Reduction § Citizenship and Belonging § Crime and Social Exclusion § Sustainable Development § Public, private and voluntary sectors 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> § Public Sector Investment § Private Sector Investment § Third Sector Investment § Individual Commitment 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> § Early childhood § Schools § Further Education § Higher Education § Local Authorities § Voluntary Sector § Private Training Providers 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> § Poverty § Health § Crime § Wellbeing § Modelling § (No. TBC)

Horizon Scanning / Scenario Planning

- Social mobility
- Identity, human and social capital
- Risk and resilience

Issues for engagement

- Evaluation: multiple paths; indicators/PSAs
 - Intermediaries
 - Capabilities
 - Infrastructures

- www.niace.org.uk/lifelonglearninginquiry
- Tom.schuller@niace.org.uk